DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election with traverse of claims 1, 3, 5-10, 12 and 14-18 in the reply filed on 05/24/2007 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that all the claims are linked so as to form a single general inventive concept as shown in the International search report and this application has a reasonable number of species. Therefore, all the claims should be examined. This is not found persuasive because the International search report provided by the Applicant does not cover all aspects of the two inventions. In order to thoroughly examining only one invention, the Examiner needs to perform search in many classes and subclasses. Therefore, examining two inventions at the same time creates a serious burden on the Examiner.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.
3. Claims 1, 3, 5-7, 10, 12 and 14-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by McCormick.

Regarding claims 1 and 10, McCormick teaches a method for manufacturing a tissue section comprising the steps of:

- adjusting a distance between a slicing surface of a specimen 14 and one side of a film 24 by means 34;
- adjusting a temperature difference between the specimen and the film (the temperature of oil 22 is adjustable. Therefore the temperatures of the specimen and the film are adjustable); and
- running the film 24 at a speed in synchronism with a slicing speed of the tissue section.

Regarding claims 3 and 12, the oily environment 22 adjusts the temperature of the film 24 for picking up a tissue 26.

Regarding claims 5, 6, 14 and 15, a plurality of rollers (44, 40a and 48) is best seen in Fig. 1. A close roller 40 is best seen in Fig. 1.

Regarding claim 7, running the film 24 at a speed in synchronism with a slicing speed of the tissue section is best seen in Fig. 1.

Regarding claim 16, the running film speed and the slicing speed are controllable.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 3724

5. Claims 8 and 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over McCormick.

McCormick teaches a ratio of the running film speed and the slicing speed but does not teach a specific value of the ratio of 1.2-0.8. It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to provide a ratio of 1.2-0.8 since it relates to repeated experimental processes but not an inventive concept.

6. Claims 9 and 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over McCormick in view of Ullberg (3,690,988).

McCormick teaches the invention substantially as claimed except for a transparent film.

Ullberg teaches using a transparent film for conveying tissues. See col. 4, lines 50-55. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to use a transparent film as taught by Ullberg in the microtome machine of McCormick for better viewing tissues.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Pickett teaches a microtome machine of general interest.
